EYFS

At New York, our English curriculum aims to develop confident, fluent and enthusiastic communicators. Pupils are encouraged to develop a love of reading, write effectively for a range of purposes and audiences, and express their ideas clearly and confidently. They develop a rich vocabulary, a secure understanding of grammar and the ability to listen attentively and respond thoughtfully to others. Through a broad and engaging curriculum, we equip pupils with the essential skills to communicate effectively and become lifelong readers and learners.
